Notice

2008 Compost Facility Operator Training and Certification Schools

The Division of Waste Management's annual Training and Certification Program for Compost Facility Operators will be held June 3 and 4, 2008. Classes will be held at the Franklin County Extension Office, located at 101 Lakeview Court in Frankfort, KY.

Objective: The purposes of this program are to certify facility operators and promote acceptable environmental practices for solid and special waste operations at composting facilities. The school will hold sessions on: composting processes and methods, research utilization, permit requirements, record-keeping, waste reduction, yard waste management, rural and urban problem resolution, equipment, marketing, daily operations and monitoring. Upon successful completion of the course, the participant will obtain a 5-year certification. Classes will begin at 8:30 a.m. and end approximately at 4:30 p.m. each day. Daily sign-in is required for class credit, so please arrive on time.

Who must attend: All compost facilities in Kentucky by law must have a certified operator. If you were granted interim status, or if your certification expires on or before December 31, 2008, you MUST register to attend this school.

Fees: The fees required for the course are allocated for the expense of the training course instructor, location, and refreshments; provided training manual, supplies, and study guides, and the certification exam. Please send separate payments for each registration, in the form of a check or money order made payable to: Kentucky State Treasurer. Refunds will not be issued, and all payments must be received by the date listed by the fee below:

Compost Operator Fee:	$125.00	Fee must be received no later than: 5/02/08
Training only fee:	$100.00	Fee must be received no later than: 5/02/08

Registration: In order to successfully reserve a class, please complete and return the following to the address below: (1) the Application for Certification, form DEP 6031; (2) the registration form; (3) the appropriate fee for the class. Upon receipt of these items, the applicants will receive a letter of confirmation from the Division.
